Bruce – Thank you for the information in your three emails. The background information was helpful. fyi. Attached is a summary of my phone conversation this morning with Jason Pelton, the DEC project manager. It looks like the Navy is almost set with its acquisition of land to build the treatment system. I will send the email to the group.

Thanks,
Carol

Jim/Brian/Bruce

Walter had suggested that we get together to discuss/brainstorm options for trying to secure property for a treatment system at the Grumman facility.
